LABOR UNIONS

In Great Britain Grow in Membership Since the European War Began.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)

LONDON, Oct. 18.—Membership of labor unions in England increased by nearly three-quarters of a million persons during the year 1914, according to a belated report just issued by the registrar general. The total membership at the end of the year was 3,265,000.

This growth, which is far in excess of any previously recorded, is attributed to extended propaganda work and improved organization during a period of great industrial unrest. The largest increase occurred in the National Union of Railwaymen, the membership of which more than doubled.

During the same period there was a corresponding increase in the treasuries of the various unions, and at the end of the year the aggregate balances of the labor organizations reached nearly $39,000,000.

Every German regiment has a chaplain in its ranks. Honduras last year exported products valued at $3,421,331.

HAIR IS GRAY; YOU LOOK OLD

Look Young by Darkening Gray Hair with Q-Ban—No Dye—Harmless.

You look prematurely old if hair is gray, faded, wisp, thin, prematurely gray, or streaked with gray. You will look twelve or fifteen years younger if you darken your gray hair by shampooing your hair and scalp a few times with Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer. It is the only clean, wholesome, pure and harmless hair color restorer made. Q-Ban is not a dye, but acts on the roots, makes gray hair healthy and changes your gray hair to a beautiful, lustrous, soft, natural dark shade, darkening your gray hair so evenly that no one need suspect you use Q-Ban. Besides Q-Ban stops dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, promotes its growth, makes hair and scalp clean and feel fine and always darkens gray hair. Only 50c for a big 7-oz bottle at Wells and Hamaker Drug Store, 316 Main St., Clarksburg, W. Va. Out-of-town folks supplied by parcel post. Call or write, asking for Q-Ban Hair Color Restorer.—Advertisement.

WEST VIRGINIA BRIEFS

ELKINS: W. W. Trent, former superintendent of the public schools at Roncove and Davis, has been elected superintendent of the Elkkins public schools.

CHARLESTON: Representative Adam Littlepage denies emphatically the report that he will be a candidate for United States senator on the Democratic ticket to succeed Senator William E. Chilton.

HUNTINGTON: James H. Swanson, aged Civil war veteran of Buffalo creek, Wayne county, just south of Huntington, was stricken down and apparently died. Relatives and friends were notified of his death and arrangements were made for his funeral, but he revived and is now in his usual health.

HUNTINGTON: A. S. Emmons, owner of a large apartment house on Third avenue, has made formal complaint to Dr. E. W. Grover, president of the board of health, against the maintenance of a skunk farm between Eleventh and Twelfth streets where, he says, between sixty and seventy-five skunks and other animals are kept. He declares the farm is a nuisance.

HUNTINGTON: After being together on the same run for nine years, Charles Wade, a motorman, and James Jordan, a conductor, have been separated by the institution of a new schedule on the Ritter park street car line.

CHARLESTON: The West Virginia Suffrage Association is not in sympathy with the attacks of Mrs. H. P. Belmont, of the Congressional Union, on President Wilson, according to Dr. Irene Ballard, suffrage leader.

HUNTINGTON: Russell and Anna Terry, parents of Lalaine and Mary Louise Terry, pupils of the Miller school, whom Henry L. Wright, a contractor, sought to have withdrawn from the school on the ground that they were of negro origin, have filed suit against Wright asking $15,000 damages.

CHARLESTON: All the business of the Standard Oil Company in West Virginia will be done through headquarters here, after the erection of a business house and tanks in the southside suburb of Charleston.

HUNTINGTON: Steps have been taken by a group of well known

TEXTILE CENTER RUINED BY WAR

French-Speaking German City, One of Oldest Places in the World, Scene of Battle.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—"Muelhausen, situated near the southern tip of Alsace, the city through whose streets the French and Germans fought two battles, one when the French-speaking German city was an important textile center before the outbreak of the war," began a statement just issued by the National Geographic Society. "The people of the city were closely related to their neighbors across the border by blood, speech and ideals. French capital was interested in its many mills, and the cotton goods turned out here offered keen competition to those produced in Saxony and other parts of the empire. According to reports, this prosperous industrial city has suffered terribly from its experiences as a battlefield."

"The city lies just behind the present German front, fifty-six miles south of Strassburg and about twenty miles northwest of Swiss Basle. The French frontier is less than twenty miles away. Factories dot the city, and a great part of the people of the place were engaged in the manufacture of the cotton and woolen textiles, which Muelhausen sent to all parts of the world. The fabric industries of the town were concentrated in the hands of a few very wealthy families, who worked together scrupulously as against outside competition. The heads of these factories lent money in times of stress to one another, and co-operated in many other ways. Moreover, these leading industrialists of Muelhausen earned much international good fame by the assistance which they have given toward promoting the welfare of their working-people.

"The city is an old one. It was mentioned as early as 717, and had won reputation as a trading town by the tenth century. Rudolph of Hapsburg became its patron in the thirteenth century, and by the peace of Westphalia in 1648, it was recognized as an independent ally of the Swiss league. It passed to Germany in 1871. Muelhausen has suffered more from the war than any other southern city of Germany."

"Its experience have been more disastrous than those of any other German town, so far, with the exceptions of Memel and a few small East Prussian cities, over which the armies of the Tsar fought their way into the central empire."

"FAT SQUAD" OFF FOR CHARLESTON

Chief of Police Brooks Confident of Winning Silver Loving Cup.

Passengers on train No. 3 rubbed their eyes in amazement when the train stopped at the local passenger station this morning, and wondered if Jess Willard and his bunch of trainers had joined them. Railroad officials, too, wondered if they would have to hook on another engine to pull the 1,600 or more pounds of bone and muscle that boarded the train at this point.

The occasion for the amazement was the departure of Chief of Police Harry L. Brooks and a five of the largest officers on the local force for Charleston, where they will attend the annual meeting of the Association of Chiefs of Police of West Virginia.

The chief hopes to capture the silver loving cup offered by the association to the city having the four largest officers in attendance. The men taken along by the chief were Lieutenant Nicholas M. Whyte and officers Isenhart, McCloud, Davisson and Yates. Chief Brooks is confident that they will win the cup by a wide margin. He has been feeding the men on a special diet for the last few days, it is said, but police department officials refused either to deny or confirm this.

Chief Brooks is vice president of the state association. L. M. Payne, who operates a taxicab service, took the squad to the station in one of his machines. An inspection was made of the Sixth street bridge immediately after the machine passed over. It was found to be undamaged and is safe for passage.

HAVE COLOR IN YOUR CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow-complexion pallid—longer coated—appetite poor—lazy, no-good feelings—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a pure vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Take one or two nightly and not the pleasing results.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA, To the Sheriff of Harrison County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Charles W. Moore to appear before the Judge of our Circuit Court of Harrison County at the Clerk's office of our said Court, at rules to be held therein for said Court, on the first Monday in November next, to answer a bill in Chancery exhibited against him in our said Court by Edith G. Moore and have there this writ.

Witness, I, Wade Coffman, Clerk of our said Court, at the court house of the said County, this 18th day of September, 1915, and in the 3rd year of the State.

I, WADE COFFMAN, Clerk.

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA, At Rules held in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, on Monday, the 4th day of October, 1915, the following order was entered:

Edith G. Moore, vs. In Chancery, Charles W. Moore.

The object of this suit is to obtain an absolute divorce from the defendant on the ground of desertion for more than three years and for general relief.

And it appearing from an affidavit filed in said cause that Charles W. Moore is a non-resident of this State, it is ordered that he do appear within one month from the date of the first publication of this order and do what is necessary to protect his interests herein.

Given under my hand this 4th day of October, 1915.

I, WADE COFFMAN, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Harrison County, do hereby certify.
